

Maplefields Academy Knowledge Organiser

Art & Design— Fruit Clay-Work

Key Vocabulary:

Colours Shapes Form
 Form Pattern Texture Container Functional
 Decorative Clay slip Coil Score

Make a coil pot using tools and techniques

Clay Coil Building Process

1. Roll out clay

2. Make base using template

3. Roll out coils

4. Attach by 'scoring'

5. Add layers and blend

6. Make it smooth with tools

7. Build up layers

Equipment needed:

Rolling guides Rolling pin
 Clay Tools Water Paint
 brush Cloth Knife Apron
 Ruler

Add decorative elements for texture and form

Mix and apply paint using brushes and sponges

Kate Malone was born in 1959 in London. She is one of the UK's leading ceramic artists and has been making sculptures for over thirty years. Malone was a judge on BBC2's The Great Pottery Throw Down TV program.

Malone has developed a unique style, creating decorative containers inspired by fruit and vegetables. Malone works from two ceramic studios, one in Kent and one in London.

In addition to her exploration of nature, Malone has spent her career exploring and experimenting with

Create a research page for Kate Malone.

Find information and images of her sculpture.

I identify what inspires her artwork.

Sketch and colour two design ideas of your own influenced by Malones work